

Name _____

Finish the following sentences with the correct answer from Section II.

1. In most cases, _____ must be a deliberate prelude to writing.
2. As long as it holds together, a paragraph may be _____
_____.
3. A subject requires _____, each of which should be dealt with in a paragraph.
4. As a rule, begin each paragraph either with _____ _____ or a sentence that helps with _____.
5. Paragraphing calls for a _____ and _____.
6. Write primarily in _____ voice.
7. Rewrite the following words in positive form:
 - a. Not happy _____
 - b. Not well _____
 - c. Not intelligent _____
 - d. Not confident _____
 - e. Not attentive _____

8. When it comes to academic writing, use _____ language instead of abstract.

9. Rewrite the following sentences in concise form (there is more than one correct answer):

a. She is one who is smart and crafty.

b. The fact that he was late was why I got angry.

c. There is no reason that he should've not called.

d. The dog was unaware that I already put food in the bowl.

e. This class is not my favorite but I'm not unhappy to be here.

10. _____ and _____ result when words are placed badly.