

Name _____

Homework Week 9

Add proper punctuation where it is needed. Most sentences need more than one punctuation mark added.

1. I need to buy milk eggs flour and sugar to bake the cake this weekend
2. Did you find the Easter eggs I hid in the bush next to the mailbox and near the flower beds
3. On Sunday May 18 1980 Mount St Helens erupted
4. Slow down for we have plenty of time
5. My favorite foods to eat on Thanksgiving are turkey dressing mashed potatoes and gravy and cranberry sauce
6. The soft fuzzy blanket on the couch will keep you warm
7. Dr Banks whose practice is on Main Street went to college with my mother
8. Japanese cherry trees are beautiful but they bear no fruit
9. Oh I didn't know you were allergic to dairy
10. The following colors are primary red blue and yellow
11. Her brother Rev Michaels is a pastor
12. Since the day was overcast I took an umbrella to school
13. The soil is composed of peat moss and compost and other dense nutrients
14. Did you know young growing spiders can regenerate missing legs
15. Woodchucks belong to the squirrel family but they live in burrows in the ground
16. Dr Franks opened her practice on Friday October 5 2018
17. Snow fell throughout the night into the morning and all afternoon

18. Hot humid weather doesn't bother me at all
19. After five hours on the plane we were stiff and wanted to walk around for a while
20. Do you want meatloaf franks and beans or spaghetti for dinner
21. Excuse me Mrs Shields can you repeat that
22. No we don't need a map of the city to find our way around
23. The World's Fair began in Brussels in April 1958
24. Did you know that Nantucket has no major industry but depends entirely upon tourism for its prosperity
25. Labor Day like Christmas is a legal holiday
26. That's all folks
27. Dale Earnhardt Jr was a race car driver like his father
28. Her report was on Benjamin Harrison the 23rd president of the United States
29. On vacation we visited Oxford which is west of London
30. Rhode Island is the smallest state Alaska is the largest