

Name _____

Homework due Jan. 17

Rewrite the sentences so they are properly structured. Add or subtract words and punctuation as necessary. (There is more than one way to correct a poorly written sentence.)

1. We went to the fair last night and it rained so hard that we got soaked, but it didn't matter because it was so hot yesterday the rain felt nice.

2. Lying in the sun.

3. He managed to save thirty dollars and he went to the store to buy new shoes and he wore them to school the next day.

4. Because Maria wanted to learn how to sew, a sewing class was taken by her.

5. Joseph was going to school, he saw a possum.

6. When one month old, in celebration my grandmother planted a rose bush.

7. She hoped to quickly go to the store before it closed.

8. Sarah, who was happy to help me.

9. When everyone panicked, the earthquake struck.

10. The macaroni and cheese served at the restaurant with the red and white sign was too greasy to eat.

Give two examples each of synonyms, antonyms, homophones, or homographs that we did not discuss in class.

1. Synonyms: _____

2. Antonyms: _____

3. Homophones: _____

4. Homographs: _____

Diagram the following sentences.

William always bakes delicious cookies.

Richard gave me some candy.

Realizing her mistake, Susan went in the opposite direction.