

Identify the correct form of figurative language used in each selection. Write the correct word in the blank: Alliteration, Idiom, Hyperbole, Onomatopoeia, Personification, Metaphor, Simile, Oxymoron, or Allusion. Some examples may have more than one answer.

1. Don't make a mountain out of a molehill. _____
2. She's short and sweet. _____
3. The sly fox smiled at me as he licked his lips. _____
4. He made about a billion mistakes in his essay. _____
5. Brian was a robot, hitting every key with precision. _____
6. She never stops talking. _____
7. Splat went the tomato under the wheel of the car. _____
8. Cars skated across the icy road. _____
9. Poppy and Peter picked up the popcorn. _____
10. Mrs. Davis works us like a dog. _____
11. The radiator clanked when it clicked on. _____
12. My best friend's house is like Disneyland. _____
13. We sat alone together in the dark. _____
14. I feel a million years old. _____
15. My brain is on fire with new ideas. _____
16. She was such a Grinch during the holidays. _____
17. Brad's head exploded when he heard the bad news. _____
18. That test was easy as pie. _____
19. Frank's car died on the way to work. _____
20. I felt like a million bucks after a good night's sleep. _____

Diagram the following sentences.

21. The girl dyed her hair green yesterday.

22. Can you keep the jewelry safe?

23. The teacher found the students intelligent.

24. The group elected you president.

25. Be a good sport!